Jim Ryan, a member of Jones Foster's Real Estate team, brings decades of experience representing developers, buyers, sellers, and lenders in complex commercial and residential real estate transactions. He advises clients on all aspects of the real estate process, including acquisitions, dispositions, financing, and matters relating to mortgages and title insurance.

Drawing on his extensive knowledge of the dynamic South Florida market, Jim provides practical, strategic guidance tailored to each client's goals. Prior to joining Jones Foster, he served as sole shareholder and president of a five-member North Palm Beach law firm, where his practice also included estate planning and probate law.

Jim remains active in legal and industry organizations, including The Florida Bar Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section and the American Land Title Association. He is AV® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell in recognition of his legal ability and high ethical standards.
