Matthew Worsham is a member of Jones Foster's Trust & Estate Litigation and Private Wealth, Wills, Trusts & Estates practice groups and focuses his practice in the areas of probate, guardianship, and trust litigation and trust and estate administration. He represents individual beneficiaries, heirs, fiduciaries, and corporate fiduciaries in probate, guardianship, and trust-related matters, including will and trust contests, trustee/personal representative removal actions, accounting actions, will and trust reformation and modification matters, and elective share cases. Matthew's previous experience includes commercial and employment litigation matters.

Matthew is actively involved in several legal organizations, including the Martin County Bar Association, where he serves as Social Co-Chair and Chair of the Wills, Trusts & Estates/Probate Committee, and is a past Chair of the Judicial Relations Committee. He is also a member of The Florida Bar's RPPTL Section and Trial Lawyers Section.

Matthew graduated with a Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan Law School and holds an LL.M. in Estate Planning from the University of Miami School of Law.
